The Board of County Commissioners are casting about for a stray vote, too. It appears the Board met yesterday for the purpose of organizing, but they failed to elect a president. Some 28 ballots were cast, when the "one vote" ballots were cast, when the "one vote" not turning up, an adjournment was had. The ballots stood: Sample, 1; S. M. Long, 1; blank, 1. It is known that Sample voted for Long, and Long for Sample. Wedenborner voted blank, Sample and Long decline voting for themselves, and Weidenborner will not vote for himself or for either of the others. So the matter stands. Mr. Long. being the oldest member, according to custom is entitled to it, but refusing to vote his own name, he is not likely

Recipes that Have Been Tried.

Newport Breakfast-cake - One cup sweet milk, one-third cup sugar, one egg, two and a half cups flour, small plece butter melted, two teaspoonfuls good baking-powder, salt.

Breakfast-cake No. 2 - Two heaping tablespoontuls Indian-meal, one large cup flour, one cup sweet milk, one egg baking powder, two teaspoonfuls salt.

Mock Mince Ples-Three soda crackers rolled fine, 1 cup of cold water, 1 cup of molasses, ½ cup of brown sugar, ½ cup of sourcider or vinegar, ½ cup of metted butter, ½ cup of raisins, ½ cup of currants, 1 egg beaten light, 1 teaspoon of cinnamon, ½ teaspoon each of cloves, all spice and nutmeg, 5 apples

Carrot Pudding—One cup of chopped carrot, I cup of mashed potatoes, I cup of chopped suct, I cup of sirup, 2 eggs, 2 cups of flour, spice to suit the taste. The carrots and potatoes are to be boiled first, of course—if the day before it will answer just as well.

Chicken Salad-Mince the white chicken Salad-Mince the white meat of a chicken fine, or pull it in bits; chop the white parts of celery; prepare a salad dressing in this wise; rub the yolks of hard-boiled eggs smooth with a spoon, put to each york one teaspoonful of made mustard, half as much salt, half cupful strong vinegar, put the cel-ery in a dish, lay the chicken on that, then pour over the dressing. Lettuce out small in the place of celery may be used. Cut the whites of the eggs in rings to garnish the salad.

Squash Pie-Obtain a good Hubbard squash, saw it into quarters, and bake two of these until dry and thoroughly done. Scoop out the dry mealy part, and while warm add a tablespoonful of flour, and rub it well, wetting as you go with a little milk. This should be heated, and to this quantity of a quash you will want three pints of milk. Now come the eggs; two for a pie will do; three won't hurt. Use a small teacup of sugar for each pie. To this add the yolks of your eggs, and beat a long time, adding for each pie one teaspoonful of ginger and one of cinnamon. Line your tins with a nice paste, in which you have sitted a little baking powder. Beat up your whites to a stiff froth; stir the yolks in first, then the whites; fill your shell and place in oven, which must not be too not, as they will brown too fast and spoil the golden foam that comes to the top. At my table I have had gentle-men say that they could eat half an acre of them. "The proof of the pudding is in the cating," you know.

Lived Within His Salary.

There were several good stories told at the conductor's dinner last evening, but the one that created the most lauguter was related by Conductor McElroy, from Pennsylvania. He said a con-ductor on an Eastern road was approached by a seedy looking individual who wanted to get a free ride, as he didn't have any money.

"All right," said the conductor; "go forward into the smoking car and I'll fix you all right? Soon afterward the conductor apseared in the smoking-car to collect fare rom the passengers. He took fare from very one except the dead-beat and another man, who happened to be the Su-perintendent of the road. The Superintendent noticed that he had overlooked this man, and asked him why he had done it. "Why, that's a conductor," was the reply.

"His appearance does not indicate it.

intendent.
Well," said the conductor, "he can't help that. He's a conductor on a West-ern road and he is one of those fellows who are trying to live within their salary; and that's what he has come to."
This was satisfactory to the Superintendent, and the man obtained his ride without further inquiry .-[Omaha

AMUSEMENTS.

Wood's Theater.

Mr. John Raymond as "Colonel Mulberry Sellers," last night drew a fine audience, as he always does. The play is strictly American. An audience in any part of the country is sure to enjoy any part of the country is safe to the it immensely. No matter how quentry one has seen it is always impelled to again, "There's millions in it" again, "There's millions in 10" and there will be for many years to come. Miss May Roberts made her first appearance in this city. She played the part of "Laura Hawkins," pearance in this city. She played the part of "Laura Hawkins," a character that Cincinnatians have become accustomed to see-ing well rendered, and did it well. She is a good actress, and will improve on acquaintance. Mr. Wilson's "SI Hawkins," Mr. Mackay's "Clay Hawkins" and Miss Ella Mayer's "Em-ity Hawkins" all showed now well the ity Hawkins" all showed now well the piece was cast. Mr. Raymond never appeared to better advantage. With such a support and the piece so well set, no greater attraction could be offered.

Grand Opera-house.

Mr. Joseph Murphy, the popular Irish comedian, commenced an engagement last night in his new play, the "Kerry Gow." The play, a very pleasant and interesting one, has been improved in many particulars, and 'now affords tull scope for Mr. Murphy's specialties, besides having a good plot and carrying the interest all the way turough. Mr. Murphy is a good comedian and a fine singer, and an audience is always delighted with his efforts. He is well supported by the Grand Operahouse company, and the entertainment offered is one that the lovers of comedy can not afford to miss. interesting one, has been improved in can not afford to miss.
